

We sincerely invite everyone to the 2026 Inter-University Online Conference for Role Model EMI Practices, which will be held on July 1-2, 2026 (9:00-17:00 pm)

Since 2024, we have been organizing the conference to promote and inspire deep professional exchange that support the professional development of teachers. The theme for this year's conference is “Cultivating Agency and Excellence in EMI Classes” and focuses on how students and teachers become active agents of their own learning and professional growth in EMI Classes.

Our conference features talks by distinguished professionals in EMI and role-model teachers and also includes 2 workshops for using AI to enhance teaching and learning.

Our featured speakers and workshops include:
